

The Byrd's View to Keep You Informed

Hello Staff Member,

I don't have a lot to share so I will give you a week off from being tortured by reading my weekly posts. I really hope you are laughing at that comment because you truly enjoy the weekly postings and look so forward to reading them to start your week off.

Also, if you haven't already done so, please RSVP for the Employee Luncheon to be held at your campus location during the week of March 27.

Enjoy the rest of the week and don't forget to smile and say hello to someone as you travel on your outside journeys this week. You never know, that "HELLO" might be the word that makes their day and you will be rewarded with a smile back at you, trust me - no really trust me.

Dr. James 'Byrd' Yizar
2016/17 Staff Council President
