Introduction: Idaho State University (ISU) requests that the parents or legal guardians of students under the age of 18 provide written authorization in advance for ISU to provide medical care and treatment, including mental health and counseling services to minor students.

Authorization: I authorize ISU to provide medical and/or mental health treatment to my child/ward who is a student of ISU. These services may include but are not limited to medical examinations, diagnostic tests, consultations, counseling, therapy, and medication management. In emergency cases, I understand efforts will be made to contact the student's emergency contact. I understand this authorization is being signed in advance, prior to any need, to expedite care in the case of a future medical or mental health concern.

In granting this permission, I also give permission to CMHC clinicians and staff to:

1. Work with any member of the CMHC clinical team, including supervised/trained interns who will record their sessions for supervision purposes;
2. Receive services via telehealth modalities;
3. Receive biofeedback services;
4. Address my child/ward by the names and references they request;
5. Communicate via email in rare circumstances, primarily for the coordination of appointments; 6. Facilitate the disposal of items in the possession of the student which causes them to feel at risk for harming themselves (e.g. pills, sharps); and
7. Treat all records as confidential in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and as such may not be released without the express written permission of the student except for emergency or other situations dictated by applicable law and standards for ethical conduct.

Student Code of Conduct

We are pleased that you have decided to attend the Idaho State University Bengal Bridge Summer Program. The seven-week program begins June 14 and ends July 30 2026. The following information will help you understand the guidelines and consequences that govern our summer program. Please review this information and keep it for future reference. You will be held accountable for following this code of conduct.

Residence Hall Guidelines:

1. No members of the opposite gender in your dorm room or designated male/female floors after 9:30 pm – NO EXCEPTIONS. Students may socialize in the lounges available on the 1st floor. Any students who violate this rule or who know about a violation and do not report it will be held accountable and will be required to meet with the Bengal Bridge Coordinator.

2. Room assignments cannot be traded without permission of the staff. Please notify Bengal Bridge staff if you are having problems with your roommates early on so that mediation can take place. Only under emergency situations will room changes be made.

3. Room Inspections – Idaho State University respects the student's right to privacy; however, Bengal Bridge staff reserves the right to enter a student's room or inspect belongings at any time for health, safety, and student's welfare or maintenance purposes. Advance notice will be given when possible.

4. Stolen Property - Take care of your own personal property. ISU and Bengal Bridge are not responsible for student property which is lost, stolen, or damaged; therefore, it is up to you to keep your valuables safe. Secure all your valuables when you leave your room and know that you are responsible for them, no one else! Please lock your door, even when just going to the restroom.

5. Housekeeping – Hall staff will occasionally inspect rooms to assure cleanliness. Bengal Bridge students are expected to keep their rooms and bathrooms clean, and to set a good example for all students.

6. Residence Hall Policies - Absolutely no alcohol, drugs, candles, incense, open-faced grills, pets, etc. Possession of these items may result in dismissal from the Bengal Bridge Summer Program.

7. You must adhere to all University Housing Policies at Idaho State University, including Standards of Residence. University Housing Policies can be located at https://www.isu.edu/housing/forms-and-policies/ and https://www.isu.edu/housing/standards-of-residence/

Cafeteria Guidelines:

1. Shoes and shirts must be worn in the dining hall.

2. Students must be on time for meals.

3. Any change in scheduled times for meals will be posted.

4. Please be courteous. Many groups visiting the ISU campus share this facility. Idaho State University is allowing us to eat in their facilities and may ask us to leave at any time based on bad behavior such as vulgarity, leaving food and garbage behind, and overall rowdy behavior within the cafeteria. If your behavior is consistently disruptive within the cafeteria, you may be dismissed from the summer program.

Classroom Guidelines:

1. Classroom Management Policy – Students are expected to be attentive, courteous, and cooperative during all classes. The Bengal Bridge Summer instructors have complete authority in their classroom. If students do not agree with decisions, they may address their concerns to the Bengal Bridge Coordinator for review.

2. Academic Policy – Students are expected to complete all assignments and participate in class and other program activities. Students who do not participate fully will receive a consequence from their teacher, which will be reported to the Bengal Bridge Coordinator.

3. Academic Dishonesty – Cheating or plagiarism in any form is unacceptable. All work submitted by a student must represent the student's own ideas, concepts, and current understanding. The list of possible offenses is not exhaustive but here are a few examples: A.) copying from another exam paper before, after or during the exam, B.) using notes or retrieving notes from a computer, C.) having someone else take your test, etc. The Bengal Bridge instructor is responsible for handling each case of dishonesty in the classroom unless it is a repeat offense, in which case, the offense will be referred to the Bengal Bridge Director.

4. Absence Policy – Students are expected to attend the full seven weeks of Bengal Bridge Summer Program. If you cannot attend a portion of summer school due to an emergency and/or unavoidable conflict, you and your parent/guardian must contact your Bengal Bridge Faculty Mentor. Unexcused absences result in significant grade deductions and potential failure of the course(s).

5. Class Schedules - Students are assigned to classes according to academic need, interest and availability of a specific course. Students may not change Bengal Bridge summer courses. Students who add/drop their own courses are responsible financially for any changes in fees/tuition. Class selection will be completed for a student based on the information provided. All students are required to enroll in ROAR 1101.

General Behavioral Guidelines:

1. Guest Policy – Due to time and financial restrictions, guests and visitors are generally not allowed. Family members, including parents, siblings, grandparents, etc. may visit with prior approval and must make arrangements by calling our office at (208) 282-3662. No guest(s) are allowed to stay overnight with students living in the halls.

2. Alcohol and Drug Policy - The possession and/or use of alcoholic beverages, tobacco, unauthorized prescription drugs, illegal drugs, vaping/cigarettes or other controlled substances is prohibited. Each incident will be handled on a case-by-case basis, but expulsion from the summer program is a possibility. The parent/guardian will be notified immediately if the student is under 18 years of age.

3. Dangerous Possessions - Firecrackers, gunpowder and/or other forms of explosives, guns, knives, etc. are prohibited. Each incident will be handled on a case-by-case basis, but expulsion from the summer program is a possibility. The parent/guardian will be notified immediately if the student is under 18 years of age.

4. Harassment – ISU and Bengal Bridge prohibit conduct towards others that unreasonably interferes with an individual's work or academic performance, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment for that individual's work, education, or participation in a Bengal Bridge activity. This includes implied or stated threats of violence. Further, ISU and Bengal Bridge will not tolerate retaliation against a person who makes or is a witness for a harassment complaint.

5. Sexual Harassment and/or Sexual Assault – Any unwelcome conduct, touching, comments, coercion, retaliation, or implied or stated threats of violence is strictly prohibited. Students are expected to be responsive to requests from staff, teachers, residential mentors, assistant directors, project directors, or other students regarding behavior which is inconsistent with respect for the rights of others. Respect each other by the way you speak (no vulgarity, profanity, gossip), act (no hitting, public displays of affection, pushing, obscene gestures), and dress (no clothing inappropriate for the situation).

6. You must adhere to all student policies under the student code of conduct which is located at https://www.isu.edu/deanofstudents/student-conduct/
