CALL FOR ENTRY: VIGILANCE
Veteran's Art Exhibition 2022

The Department of Art at ISU will be accepting artwork for Vigilance: Veterans Art Exhibition 2022 from artists who identify as veterans and family members of veterans. The exhibition will be a diverse collection of the creative endeavors of veterans from our region. The artwork on display will range from applied art and craft to fine art, and the pieces will communicate a robust diversity of meaning and expression.

Contact: Ryan Babcock, Gallery Director, ISU Department of Art
Contact Information ryanbabcock@isu.edu - 208.282.2361 - isu.edu/art

TOP NEWS

Homecoming Parade help needed
Come help carry the flag in the homecoming parade on Saturday Oct. 15th - call us for more details - (208) 282-HERO

BENGAL FAMILY WEEKEND
Events scheduled
From Disc Golf to Bowling and Billiards - this weekend is loaded with events and specials!

Women's Soccer vs NAU
Sunday Oct. 2nd - 1PM to 4PM
Come support the women's soccer team as they take on Northern Arizona University at home (Davis Field).

Idaho State University Military Education Benefits is HIRING!

Idaho State University Military Education Benefits is seeking a motivated candidate for the position of Military Tuition Assistance evaluator.

The successful candidate will perform work related to providing Veteran, Active Duty, Guard and Reserve military connected students with assistance in utilizing DOD Federal Tuition Assistance and VA Education Benefits. Additional duties will include evaluation of academic and vocational graduation requirements; providing technical assistance to faculty, staff, and students; and additional duties related to serving the military connected student population at Idaho State University.

To apply go to isu.edu/jobs and click on the LOOKING FOR MORE JOBS link!

isu.edu.veterans (208) 282-HERO (4376) veterans@isu.edu